Born, to the wife of Wm Sparks on Monday, a boy.

John M. Rose is at Mt. Sterling with 65 cattle and 500 head of sheep.

Tom Maynes, of the Ball-Warfield Co., was in town yesterday interviewing our merchants.

J. G. Trimble, of Mt. Sterling, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. T. Day, and other relatives here.

Willie Kash, who was on Gillmore on Saturday, tells us that "Squire Vest had a fine cow killed by lightning Friday.

Do you own a horse? Then get Biggle Horse Book. Price 50 cents, by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

Born, to the wife of Herbert Nickell, near Daysboro, on Friday, a boy. Dr. Nickell thinks he will be a republican when the time comes to vote.

THE BEST should be your aim when buying medicine. Get Hood's Sarsaparilla and have the best medicine MONEY CAN BUY.

The republicans of this county met at Campton on Saturday last, and elected delegates to the Irvine convention, instructing them for Sowards, of Pike, for congress.

Dr. Nickell on Thursday last amputated a toe from the foot of John White, of the Stamper branch. While cut his foot in making ties and it was necessary to take the toe off to prevent blood poison.

A letter received here Saturday night brought the information that Miss Lula Johnson, a daughter of our fellow-countyman, A. F. Johnson, who is now visiting relatives and friends at Charleston, Ill., has typhoid fever.

Grant Lacy and Ed Taulbee attended the camp meeting at Ezel on Sunday. Grant was looking for a Vest pattern, notwithstanding it was Sunday, and the object of his taste, according to connoisseurs, is said to be a divine creation.

"The Farm Journal is all sunshine," writes J. H. Hale, the great Connecticut fruit man, and THE HERALD thinks so too. Get for the remainder of 1900 and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, to every one who pay up for THE HERALD at the price of our paper alone, which is only 65 cents.

PANQUI, P. I., June 18, 1900.
To Editor of THE HERALD:
Dear Cooper—Enclosed find a few relics I have saved since coming here last November.

The small polished shell is one I picked up on the coast of Oahu, H. I., at the queen's bathing resort, near the city of Honolulu.

The leaden ball is one which struck within six inches of, and directly between Privates Wood and Turnbull, of this company, while they were lying in the trenches at Angeles repelling an attack on that place Oct. 15, 1899. The two boys are from Youngstown, O., and are now members of my squad.

The large bean is a native trinket, highly valued by them. I found it in an old chest in the city of Cameling shortly after that place was taken by Gen. Wheeler, Dec. 16th.

The ring is one I took from the hand of an insurgent "petty" officer while in the above place.

The small unpolished shell is one I picked from the summit of Diamond Head, a large mountain in the H. I., near Honolulu, Oct. 27, 1899.

The blue beads, with rosary, were taken (by mutual consent) from the arm of a fair native brunette. The large string of black beads were given me by a native Igilotte woman. They are such as are worn by the mountain tribes.

The clip of Mausers were picked from the insurgent trenches at Bamban, Oct. 28. The shoulderstrap is one taken from a dead insurgent officer's uniform. He was killed near Batista by the 4th cavalry Nov. 20th. The spectacles were taken from the same officer's pocket.

The single Mauser bullet was snapped at one of our boys by an insurgent, but missed fire, when our soldier shot him dead and took the bullet from the insurgent's gun.

I am sorry I can't send you something more valuable, but the natives are not very extravagant in buying such articles, as you will readily see by examining those enclosed. Will bring you some native wrappers when I come home.

It is raining very hard here now, every day, never ceasing.

Gen. McAbolis, of the insurgent army, surrendered his entire command the 14th inst. to Col. Discaim, of the 9th cavalry at Torlae.

Regards to Mrs. Cooper and success to THE HERALD. Respectfully,
Geo. C. TAULBEE,
Co. F, 12th Infantry.

P. S. Success to your efforts for assessor. G. C. T.

Sunday night while standing in a crowd in front of H. F. Pieratt's store somebody threw a rock from the direction of the Day House corner and hit Curt Lacy on the right hand, knocking down the knuckle of the third finger and tearing all the flesh off the index finger. Notwithstanding there was three or four men in the crowd, Curt was the only one hit, and he is anxious to learn the name of the one who threw the missile so that he may return the favor in kind.

Some one stole a new bill book containing official papers and $11 in money out of the pocket of Harry Perkins' coat, which was lying on the counter in H. F. Pieratt's store, on Friday evening last. He will give $2.50 for the return of the book and its contents and ask no questions if it be delivered at once, but if not the person, who is known, will be prosecuted to the extent of the law.

Elza James and C. B. Rose took in the camp meeting at Ezel Sunday, and report a nice time. Curt is enthusiastic over a pattern of calico at Ezel and says it is superior to anything about Hazel Green. It is of semi French fashion, it is rumored, being a Pieratt pattern, and exquisitely beautiful. Elza's taste runs to flowers, of which the Rose is his favorite, and the one that blooms at that place surpasses all others in sweetness.

"You May Bend the Sapling, but not the tree." When disease has become chronic and deep seated it is often difficult to cure it. That is the reason why it is best to take Hood's Sarsaparilla when disease first shows itself. Hood's Pills are a favorite family cathartic.

WHAT IS HOME?
Home is the heart's purest garden
Where fairest flowers grow,
Where affection's sunshine sheds a ray,
Where tears of sympathy flow;
Home is where the circle is formed.
A shrine where love and truth
Should hold communion every day
With the aged and the youth.
Home is the purest type of heaven,
'Tis music's sweetest strain,
A place that can be garnished with grace
Without a mar or stain.
Home is where the wayward child
Can always find relief;
The sunshine of a mother's love,
Will bury every grief.

Home owns the best and brightest scene,
Though we be far away,
A vision pure that never fades,
And memory e'er will stay.
Home is the place, though mature years
Robb not that angel smile,
That hallowed halo is there still
As when we were a child.

W. S. Tutt, our efficient county clerk was here this week looking after his fences in his race for renomination, and judging from what we could learn and what we saw, he repaired all the gaps, if indeed, there were any, and seemed quite well pleased with his prospects. Silas Tutt has made the county a good clerk, always attentive to business and accommodating to the public, he has now many encomiums for his uniform courtesy, and upon the time honored custom of giving the clerk a second term by way of endorsement for his efficiency, he will have quite a strong following and present a formidable front at the primary next month. And again, aside from his efficiency and fidelity many consider that being a cripple from rheumatism it would be a humane act to endorse him for a second time on that account.

Dr. J. B. Taulbee, of Mt. Sterling, assisted by his brother, Dr. John A. Taulbee, and Miss Stinson, a professional nurse, performed a successful operation upon Mrs. John Prate, of the State Road fork of Red river on Friday last. Mrs. Prate has been confined to her bed for the past three years, but the indications now are that she will soon be up and about and again enjoy life.

Born, to the wife of John Murphy, of the Murphy fork, on Sunday night, the 12th inst., a girl. Dr. Nickell, the commissioner in the case, says it is the only disfranchised republican he has introduced in several months. But the young lady's papa is so strong in the faith that her influence for the party will be great.

Bob Brooks and Jack Sally left Monday for Paris, Coles county, Ill. The broom corn harvest in that section is what attracted them, as hands are now in demand at good wages. So we shall expect the young men to come home this fall with plethora purses.

Henry Lee, the 12 year old boy of Tom Hall, was bitten by a copperhead snake today two weeks ago on the right ankle, and his father split open a chicken and applied it to the wound which extracted the poison, and the boy has since shown no signs of the bite.

If you are entitled to the Farm Journal and are not now getting it please notify us at once. All who have paid for THE HERALD for one year in advance, should have the Farm Journal, and if you are not getting it notify us and it will come.

Robert Kash and Harry Perkins attended a watermelon cutting at Joe Lee Wilson's on Gillmore Tuesday night. Miss Lilian Evans disburbed the melons, and all who participated are loud in their praise of the affair.

Carl Mize, who has been away for a month past, visiting at Lexington, Mt. Sterling and other points, returned home Saturday, and says he never did enjoy a month's outing so much.

Lee Caskey, of the Caskey school house neighborhood, and Uncle Andy Nickell, of the Cox Mill neighborhood, are reported by Dr. McC. Kash as on the sick list.

Jim Trimble and Bud Mapel left on Tuesday morning for Lexington, with the avowed intention of joining the regular army.

"WHITAR"
ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP
IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified toilet soap and superior to the old black tar soaps in every way. It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features. It is a perfect towel for wash bowl, for its better is smooth skin. It is used in England and soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and, being 100 per cent. pure, contains any of "the filled" soaps of equal size. It contains much more glycerine than other soaps and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended. Physicians recommend it for babies' bathing, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious.
